Oskaloosa, Iowa

Oskaloosa is a diverse, micropolitan community offering big-city amenities. It is a “hot spot” for entrepreneurs thanks to public and private leaders who work to build strong infrastructure, communication, and transportation systems and have a vision of sustainable growth. It is a place businesses and workers want to call home. Our historic downtown district is a hub for live music, shopping, and dining. A high-speed fiber optic system delivers world-class communication solutions and can grow with technological changes and demands. With a current population of approximately 11,500 people, Oskaloosa continues to grow and change. The community is approximately 65 minutes from the state capital of Des Moines and just over an hour and a half away from Iowa City, home to the University of Iowa.

Mission

Serve and protect the citizens of Oskaloosa to provide a positive environment which encourages desirable growth and enhances the quality of life in the community.

Vision Statement

Make Oskaloosa an irresistible place to grow business so the quality of life is enhanced for the whole community.

City of Oskaloosa's Form of Government

The City of Oskaloosa has a Mayor-Council form of government with the City Council appointing a City Manager to serve at the discretion of the City Council. The City Council consists of seven Council Members, four elected by ward and three elected at large for overlapping terms of four years. The Mayor is elected for a two-year term. The Mayor is not a member of the City Council and does not vote. The City Council, Mayor, and city officers have such powers and shall perform such duties as are authorized by State law and by the ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations of the city.

Library Board of Trustees

The board of trustees of the library, hereinafter referred to as the board, consists of nine resident members. At the discretion of the mayor, the board may consist of three members from rural Mahaska County. All members are to be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the council.

All appointments to the board shall be for six years, except to fill vacancies. Each term shall commence on July 1st. Appointments shall be made every two years of one-third the total number or as near as possible, to stagger the terms. The position of any trustee shall be vacant if he moves permanently from the city, or if he is absent from six consecutive regular meetings of the board, except in the case of sickness or temporary absence from the city. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by appointment of the mayor, with approval of the council, and the new trustee shall fill out the unexpired term for which the appointment is made. Trustees shall receive no compensation for their services.
